Educating for Eternity

Volume 6, Issue 25

February 24, 2022

In K-2 Bible class this week, the students learned that Jesus chose death so that we could choose life! What a precious opportunity is ours each day to learn about the amazing grace and love of our Savior.

Happy Heart Banquet

The banquet is this Sunday. If you haven't signed up yet, you can still contact Mrs. Wright as there are still seats available. The meal will begin at 1:00 pm. There is no admission fee, but we ask that everyone bring some items needed to make the dinner. These items are listed on the sign-up sheet or you can check with Mrs. Wright to see what items are still needed. To sign up, contact Mrs. Wright. The students (grades 3-8) should be at school by noon to help set up tables and decorations and during the meal to help clear places and serve as needed. Students, please wear black or dark attire.

The 5-week spring session starts in March 2022 (specific date yet to be announced) from 6-7:30 pm. Reduce nagging and complaining, promote thinking/decision making, give consequences with empathy, put a laugh back into parenting, and it's FREE. Call 701.456.0007 or email skilwein@dpsnd.org to register.

Final Stretch of the Iditaread

It's the final weekend to finish the Iditaread. Several have already arrived! Yay! Keep up the reading, and let's all get there in time! In celebration of those who complete the challenge by February 28, we will go ice skating for our Red Lantern party on Tuesday, March 1. Those who have already completed the Iditaread or complete it by Monday will receive a parental consent form to take home. This must be signed by a parent and returned to school on Tuesday with $2 to enable the student to go to the ice center.

Point to Ponder

"The vigor of our spiritual life will be in exact proportion to the place held by the Bible in our life and thoughts."

— George Müller
